Cougars Emerge As WAC Power

Y Smears Wolfpack For Title

by Gary Wood
Assoc. Sports Editor

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—The Western Athletic Conference has a new football power. Brigham Young University's Cougars, long a league doormat, emerged as undisputed WAC champs with a convincing 42-8 triumph over New Mexico last Saturday at Albuquerque.

CONFERENCE grid squads will have to find another team to wipe their feet on. The Cougars in winning their first league title in modern history, surprised everybody by winning three out of four Conference games on the road besides downing Utah at home.

A loss to Wyoming in a Laramie Homecoming contest was the one blemish on BYU's 1965 league record.

AT THE BEGINNING of the season, the only thing the "experts" could agree on was that the Cougars from Provo would finish dead last in the Conference.

But Coach Tommy Hudspeth, in his second year as head mentor of BYU's football fortunes, completely upset preseason predictions that Wyoming would take the title, battled closely by New Mexico and Arizona.

THE "MUST" victory over the Lobos gave the Cougars the league crown with a 4-1 Conference mark, and amazing Arizona State with a 3-1 record was runner-up, followed by the Cowboys at 3-2.

New Mexico, finishing the season out of first place for the first time in the three-year history of the WAC, was fourth at 2-3, and Utah

Coach Hudspeth was a king and his team princes as they vaulted into the only conference championship in BYU's modern history. Steve and John Ogden's parents took a special railroad car of rooters to Albuquerque (Mom gives the boys a hug after the game—top). The Cougar Band (lower left) and pep committee were there as well. And after all was done Coach Hudspeth was treated to a full-dress shower and the other coaches soon followed suit.

Emotional Saturday In Albuquerque

by Gary Wood
Associate Sports Editor

Emotions ran high and strong at Albuquerque on Saturday.

WINNING THE FIRST football championship in BYU history was enough to overshadow even the Homecoming triumph over the Utes.

But the jubilation of victory was the only possible antidote to the remorse of death. The news of tragedy involving 13 Cougar supporters plunged the hundreds of fans already in Albuquerque into gloom that the sweet taste of victory could only partially erase.

BRIGHAM YOUNG University President Ernest L. Wilkinson considered the possibility of cancelling the contest, but, in his words, "If it would have mitigated the grief of their families and friends, we would have postponed the game, but we know those who perished would have wanted us to play."

That was the sentiment of Mrs. Betsy Probert, wife of former BYU all-conference end, Dr. Marion Probert, who was a victim of the fatal accident. Mrs. Probert sent a telegram to Coach Tom Hudspeth telling of her husband's lifelong anticipation of the BYU football championship.

THE VICTORY will go on the books as a victory for the BYU gridders, but was dedicated to their fans who were unable to witness the long-awaited championship.

Fride was another emotion prevalent in Albuquerque. The Cougar gridders were not supposed to accomplish much in 1983 with their toughest schedule ever. They won the Conference crown the hard way — on road — bagging three of their four league wins away from home.

"I HAVEN'T words to describe how proud I am of our boys, of how they've come through this year," beamed Coach Hudspeth following an after-game shower as he sat wringing wet in his suit. "I can't say enough for them."

"We put our whole game together for the first time today," he continued, "and I have to admit I even lost count of the score."

NEW MEXICO fans—the few who showed up—would like to forget, too. With the Cougars in front 35-0 with 8:50 gone in the fourth quarter, the Lobo fans streamed from the stadium.

The 8-4 season was BYU's best since 1958, when it had an identical record. Conversely, New Mexico's 3-7 record is its worst since the 2-4 mark in 1959.

JUNIOR QUARTERBACK Virgil Carter had a sensational day, faking beautifully and mixing up his plays exceptionally well.

(13) and Arizona (14) brought up the rear.
THE ALBUQUERQUE debacle was a game of superlatives for the Cougars, who played a near-flawless sixty minutes of football. The Mountain Cats had been favored to win by one touchdown, but the visitors were too fired up to be held to that puny margin.
BYU completely dominated the game, and piled up 529 yards in total offense to 252 for New Mexico, running up 31 first downs (a new Conference record) to the Lobos' 11.

VIRGIL CARTER, Brigham Young's superb field general, was unstoppable as he completed 23 of 32 passes for 309 yards and three TD's and picked up 14 more as a runner for 323 total yards.

But the Blue Darter was far from the whole show for the charged-up Cougars, who smelled history in the air and dedicated the game to their ancestors who lost their lives in a plane crash on their way to Albuquerque to see them play.

THE OGDEN brothers, John and Steve, put snap in the Cougar bite, John, though outgained by New Mexico's great Carl Johnson, still picked up 106 yards rushing to repeat as WAC leader in that department. The crunching Puma fullback, who gained an even 700 yards for the season, also scored a touchdown on a 35-yard trap play.

Steve, a tailback, carried 14 times for 53 yards and one touchdown and caught six passes for 93 yards and another score.

BYU'S STELLAR end, Sophomore Phil Odle, caught ten passes for 127 yards and two TD's to set a new WAC career record for touchdown passes and become the league scoring champ with 66 points. Odle also tied the Conference single game reception mark.

The line play, both offensive and defensive, was boyed reproach. Carter got adequate coverage on pass plays, and the Ogdens combination had huge holes to charge through.

was aboard the United 727 that crashed about a fortnight ago. He is reported in satisfactory condition at LDS Hospital.

FROM THE wreckage shown, it appeared that the plane struck the top of a 300-ft. hill, sailed across a valley near Camp Williams and finally plowed into the hill. It apparently exploded and burned immediately after it came to rest, and only the tail section remained intact.

Dr Earl C. Crockett, a vice president of BYU, issued the following statement:

"THE ENTIRE university, faculty, studentbody, alumni and community are deeply saddened by this great tragedy."

Killed in the crash were: T. R. Gledhill, Dr. Gordon K. Lewis, Dr. Marion E. Probert, Dr. J. Bernard Critchfield, Jim Peterson, Dr. Anthony Dalton and Richard Wilkins.

DR. ROGER W. Parkinson, Garth Edde, Kenneth W. Myers, Norma Jenkins, Diane Edde and Calvin Higgs were victims.
